The Principal's Pen

by Dr. Mary D. Monsour

Summertime brings with it not only a more relaxed pace but also time to read, a favorite pastime of mine. Here are some excellent adult reading books that may enhance your parenting skills, give you food for thought on a personal basis, or just relax you enough to take you "somewhere else" for a few moments of time.

Night by Elie Wiesel. This is one book you will not be able to put down once you start it. From beginning to end, I sat with rapt attention reading the account of one young man as he endured the Holocaust with his father. This book is highly recommended for teenagers in grade 8 but it was one I found to be particularly insightful for adults as well.

The Power of Now by Eckhart Tolle. Though this book was on the Oprah List it is not why I read it. I happened upon it recently while I was traveling and began a conversation with a fellow traveler. Before I boarded, I had already been to the airport's bookstore and had a copy in hand. This is not a book that you will read from cover to cover in one sitting. Instead, it is a great "five-page turner" that you will need time to digest and reflect upon before you can read more.

Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert made me hungry, thoughtful, and amazed as I read this woman's trek through Italy, India, and Indonesia. Living a life we may all want to explore on some day's of our lives, Gilbert writes in a

Notes from the President

by Lori Cuervo

Dear Parents, Teachers, and School Staff:

Since this is the last newsletter of the year, I would like to say "thank you" to the many individuals who have made this a fabulous year for the PTA and hopefully for the students, faculty, and staff. First, thank you to the PTA Board. Each of you worked many hours this year not only to run the PTA but also to volunteer to chaperone dances, bake for Open House, cook for Teacher Appreciation events, and donate many hours of your time to make sure the students and teachers enjoyed the school year. Second, thank you to our committee chairpersons who organized and ran all of the PTA committees. You provided many activities for our students and did so under budget. You should be commended for your efforts. I hope those of you who are staying at the Middle School next year will volunteer to chair your committees again. Third, thank you to the numerous volunteers who donated their time, food, and money. None of those mentioned above could have done it without you; your generosity is very much appreciated. Fourth, thank you to the school staff answered all of our phone calls and cleaned up after each event. And last but not least, thank you to the teachers and administration. You have made our experiences at the Middle School this year very enjoyable.

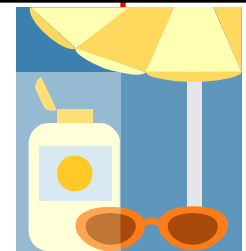

I have enjoyed serving as PTA President for the last two years. Thank you all for giving me the opportunity to help in some way at the Middle School. Good luck to all of you next year.

humorous, down-to-earth manner, putting herself and her issues right out there for everyone to see. The only problem with this book is that I found myself starving for pasta for the first one hundred pages. Hmmm. She certainly touched my life!

Teen-proofing by John Rosemond. If you have teenagers, if you live in a home where the "last word" and who has possession of it is an issue, then this is the book for you. Rosemond is down to earth and uses his common sense to describe how to deal with raising an adolescent. From allowances to curfew to handling the more difficult issues our children face, John Rosemond's ideas are easy to follow and work. I highly recommend this book to all parents of teenagers.

Enjoy and have a wonderful, relaxing summer!

PTMS 2008-2009 GYM CLOTHING ORDERING INFORMATION

The Peters Township Middle School requires all 7th and 8th graders to wear standard gym clothing in the physical education classes. The required gym outfit is red shorts, of an appropriate length, and a white t-shirt with the student's name written on the front.

The Peters Township Middle School PTA is offering the service of ordering approved gym clothing as a courtesy for parents. You are free to purchase your own gym clothes from other sources. Please use the order form found on page 5 of this newsletter and make checks payable to PTMS PTA. Orders will also be taken on August 14 during the 7th Grade Orientation and on August 15th during the 8th Grade Schedule Pickup.

The PTA will be offering the gym clothing sale again in November for children who have winter and spring gym classes. If you have any questions, please call Theresa Rhen, PTMS Spiritwear Coordinator, at 724-941-0785.

PTMS PTA REFLECTIONS FOR SCHOOL YEAR 2008-2009

Start thinking of your entry this summer.

THE 2008-2009 THEME is

WOW!

The six entry categories are:

- Dance Choreography
- Film/Video Production
- Literature
- Musical Composition
- Photography
- Visual Arts

Participating in National and Pennsylvania PTA's Reflection Program is an opportunity for students to explore and learn about various art forms. It does not matter whether an entry created for the Reflections Program has been created as a classroom assignment or independently at home.

When children express themselves through words, pictures, music, photography, and other art forms, they grow intellectually. They learn to analyze their thoughts, feelings, and ideas. They learn to look at things, people, and experiences in a fresh and exciting way, and they become more interested in the ideas and works of others. The Reflections Program also helps parents encourage and recognize the continuous self-discovery process of their children.

Young artists participate in the Reflections Program through their local PTA or PTSA. A student may submit an entry in any of the six arts areas listed below. Only original works of art are accepted. Once judged at the local level, the winners go on to the council and/or district judging. Those winners go to the Illinois PTA to receive recognition. The best project each grade level, from each category, will advance to the National PTA level.

CASHBACK FOR STUDENTS: KEEP SAVING AND USING THESE!

Keep saving boxtops and using the Cashback programs during the summer. They keep on earning cash/items back to the Peters Township Middle School all year-round. Our kids benefit from the educational materials and equipment purchased with these rewards.

Please keep up the good work and keep saving and using these programs. Box Tops for Education, Target: Take Charge of Education, Office Depot "5% Back to Schools" Program & Giant Eagle Apples for Students.
